Associate or Full Professor
Department of Criminology

The Department of Criminology, University of South Florida invites applications for a nine-month tenure-track positions at the Associate or Full Professor level beginning August 2010. Area of specialization is open, but preference will be given to those who demonstrate an ability to contribute to the department’s doctoral program. The successful applicant will have a strong publication and grant record, and demonstrate a well planned research agenda consistent with appointment as an Associate or Full professor. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. Salary is competitive and negotiable.

The Department of Criminology offers degrees at the Bachelor’s, Master’s, and Ph.D. levels. To learn more about the department, please visit our web site at: http://criminology.usf.edu.

Applicants may apply electronically for this position at: https://employment.usf.edu/applicants/jsp/shared/Welcome_css.jsp. Applicants should provide a letter of application, curriculum vitae, representative samples of published work, evidence of teaching effectiveness (if available), and three letters of recommendation. Non-electronic materials, applications and questions concerning this position should be directed to:

Dr. Michael J. Lynch
Chair, Search Committee
Department of Criminology
University of South Florida
4202 E. Fowler Ave. SOC107
Tampa, FL 33620-8100
813-974-8148
mlynch@cas.usf.edu

Candidates selected for interviews will be asked to provide an official transcript that verifies receipt of their highest degree. According to Florida law, applications and meetings regarding them are open to the public. For ADA accommodations, please contact Nadine Priester at 813-974-7197 or nadine@cas.usf.edu at least five working days prior to need. The University of South Florida is an AA/EEO institution.